

Expense Eligibility/Tracking Guide and Reimbursement Guidelines

Purpose: The purpose of this document is to provide guidelines for spending while participating in the PhD Exchange or Visiting Scientist Program, and to outline the reimbursement process.

Reimbursement Policy

The McDonald Institute will reimburse applicants for eligible expenses to the full amount and within the approved budget. A fixed stipend for which the amount will depend on the location of the exchange will be provided to each program participant to cover basic living expenses. The basic subsistence is $125 a week and a cost differential calculation can be considered before the travel occurs. It is the responsibility of the applicant to budget accordingly. The tables below outline which expenses are eligible for reimbursement and those that are ineligible

Eligible Expenses
Air travel Claimed at the lowest rate available and not to exceed full (standard) economy fare. Includes flight cancellation insurance and seat reservation charges.
Accommodation This includes any necessary accommodation while travelling to and from the exchange destination, as well as accommodation for the duration of the exchange. Accommodation during travel/relocation may be covered for a maximum of 4 days and must be pre-approved. If in-kind accommodation is available for the duration of the exchange and meets the needs of the applicant, the applicant should opt for such accommodation.
Travel health insurance when such benefits are not provided by the institution and/or other sources.
Entry visa fees for the purpose of attending the research exchange.

Ineligible Expenses
Alcohol.
Personal Insurance for car rentals.
Commuting costs between one's residence and place of employment/study, or between two places of employment.
Household items/set-up costs including furniture, decorations, other household supplies.
Personal Insurance.
Passport and Immigration Fees (such as Biometrics or processing fees).
Reimbursement for airfare purchased using personal frequent flyer points programs.

Please note that this is not an exhaustive list of ineligible expenses. For a more comprehensive list, please refer to the CFREF Administration Guide: http://www.cfref-apogee.gc.ca/programme/admin_guide-guide_administration-eng.aspx# Direct costs

Canadian host institutions participating in the Visiting Scientist and PhD Exchange programs are eligible for indirect cost to a maximum of 25% of the total award value. Indirect Costs must be in support of the funded initiative and not for general institution overhead. For examples of indirect costs and to check for eligibility of costs please refer to: <https://www.rsf-fsr.gc.ca/administer-administrer/depenses-eng.aspx>

In some instances, there are exceptional circumstances to the policy. If you believe you have an item that requires discussion, please contact the McDonald Institute Finance Officer prior to incurring any expenses for discussion and possible pre-approval.

Supporting Documentation

In order to obtain reimbursement for eligible expenses, the following documentation must be retained and provided to the McDonald Institute Finance Officer immediately following the travel:

1. Boarding passes and itineraries; for all flights taken to and from the exchange destination. As per the tables above, only air travel at the lowest fare available/not exceeding the full cost of an economy airfare will be reimbursed.
2. Receipts for transportation; any transportation (taxi fare, bus fare, etc.) taken for the purpose of travel/relocation between the home city and exchange destination.
3. Receipts for accommodation; may include rent receipts, receipts for hotels used during travel/relocation to the exchange destination.
4. Any other receipts/supporting documentation for eligible expenses incurred while on exchange.

Please submit original documents by e-mail (if electronic documents are originals) and mail all physical receipts and other supporting documentation to the McDonald Institute. We advise that you take photocopies of all documentation for your own records/backup prior to submission.

Reimbursement Process

1. Submit all required documentation as indicated above to the McDonald Institute Finance Officer no later than (14 business days) from the end date of the travel period. E-mails should be directed to: admin@mcdonaldinstitute.ca with the subject "Visiting Scientist – {last name}.
2. Provide your contact information to which the cheque will be mailed.
3. Should you prefer an electronic fund transfer, you will need to provide (i) Bank Name (ii) Bank Address including City/Province/Country and Postal Code (iii) Account/IBAN (iv) SWIFT ID

4. Please contact the McDonald Institute Finance Officer with your preferred method of reimbursement.
5. You will receive your reimbursement within (60 days/2 months) of submitting a complete claim. Please note that a claim is considered complete when all supporting documentation has been received.

Other Funding Opportunities

We highly encourage those applying for our programs to search additional sources of funding. If the application to the McDonald Institute is successful, we can issue a letter of support for applications to complementary funding agencies. Any additional funding sources that are obtained must be declared to the McDonald Institute.
